Kids Programs

Virtual Soccer Skills with UK Soccer $45/Week

All you need to participate is a 5x5 feet area, household objects that can be used for cones/markers, a laptop, tablet or even a cell phone, and of course, Wi-Fi connection.

Every camp will have their very own UK International Soccer Coaches, delivering to them LIVE! Camps will be running EVERY week, with morning and afternoon sessions available. Camps will be capped, to ensure personal interaction and feedback is provided to all players. With week-long camps costing just $45, this is a program not to be missed!

To learn more about these camps, and to register (as spaces are limited), please visit <https://virtual.uksoccer.com>

Virtual Music Lessons with Will Ferguson

August 10th-14th

Ages 7+

Join us for a weeklong singing adventure!

Meet with your class virtually on Monday and Friday and participate in a private lesson with your instructor during the week. Monday's classes will be group instruction, learning different vocal techniques, warmups, exercises, and activities. By the end of Monday's class, participants will choose a song they'd like to record during the week, and the tools they'll need to practice it. During the week, each participant will participate in a private lesson, where they'll receive an instrumental recording of the song they chose. During this time, the participants will work one on one with the instructor, preparing the song that they want to record. Before class on Friday, the participants will send their recording in to their teacher who will put them into a video collaboration. On Friday, the participants and their families and friends will meet to watch and listen to their musical performances!

Virtual Sunset Watercolor Painting Class with Lily Spearman

Monday, August 10th 3:00-4:00 PM

7-11 years old

In this class students will have the choice to paint from a provided photograph of one of Long Island's sunsets or to choose their own sunset photograph. We will talk about the process of watercolor painting and how to layer different colors.

Virtual Still Life Watercolor Painting Class with Lily Spearman

Tuesday, August 11th

3:00-4:00 PM

6th grade and up

In this class each student will create and paint their own still life. They will take a quick walk on the beach before the class to collect sea glass, shells, and any other beach treasure that they would like to paint. During the class we will talk about how to arrange what the students have found and the best way to go about painting them.
