Upon deliberation with our friends after the Planning Board meeting, we have decided to drop our request for a Site Plan evaluation of golf cart parking.

The Wallace's will have to find a different course of action. Unfortunately, the planning board has opened up a very large "can of worms" and we have advised them to seek legal council concerning the inconsistencies of the ordinances.

We are headed into our busy season working for the town and we cannot dedicate any more time to this issue. We plan on revisiting this process in the fall with the assistance of our attorney.

Thank you for your assistance
